

STUDENTS WAITING February 21, 2019

24 potential students

N.H. A 40 year old woman originally from Vietnam who has been in the U.S. for 21 years. She lives in Clinton with her family including two teenage children who were born in the U.S. and also speak fluent Vietnamese. She can read, write and speak English and comprehends well but would like to work on her pronunciation and improve her writing skills. She would be available for tutoring between 10AM-1PM Tues, Thurs or Fridays at the Hull Library in Clinton. Added 2/19/19

S.E. A man in his mid 30's who is a native born American who lives in Westbrook. He has autism and goes to a day program at Vista in Madison. Since he is developmentally delayed his comprehension lags behind his word decoding skills. He has difficulty writing and shows no interest in working on that. He is a friendly young man and has many interests. He is very eager to start working with a tutor and would be available for tutoring at in Madison at his day program Mon-Fri from 3pm-4:30pm. Added 2/19/19.

S.L. An 18 year old young woman from Ukraine who has recently moved to Clinton to live with her father. She reads, writes and speaks English very well. She studied English for 9 years in Ukraine and would like to improve her English skills as she would like to work on preparing herself to attend college. She is a bit shy but friendly and eager to start. She would be available anytime for tutoring at the Hull Library in Clinton while she looks for employment. Added 2/19/19

M.L. A woman in her early 70's from Vietnam. She has been in the U.S. for 60 years and speaks English very good and would like to improve her pronunciation. She has difficulty with reading and writing and would like to improve these skills so she can find part time employment. She currently lives in Clinton and would like to be tutored at the Hull Library in Clinton in the morning on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday. Added 2/19/19

M.G. A woman in her early 30's originally from El Salvador who lives in Clinton. She has been in the U.S. for 10 years and works full time as a factory machine operator. She can speak Basic English fairly well and would like to improve her English to help her children with their school and for her work. She would be available for tutoring after 5pm on Mon, Wed or Thurs at the Hull Library. Added 2/19/19

M.O. A woman in her late 30's originally from Ecuador who has been in the U.S. for 7 years. She lives in Clinton with her 3 children one of whom is autistic. She speaks and comprehends English quite well. She is a smart and motivated young woman who would make an excellent student and fast learner. She is available for tutoring in the afternoons from 3:30pm-5:30pm at the Hull Library in Clinton. Added 2/19/19

N.G. A 40 year old woman originally from Ecuador who lives in Westbrook with her husband. She has been in the U.S. for 20 years and speaks some conversational English. She has a 7 year old son so would like to be able to help him with school work, etc. She works part time in Old Saybrook and would be able to meet for tutoring at the Westbrook Library or Acton Library on Mondays after 6pm or Tues/Wed. after 5pm. Added 1/9/19

C.C. A 60 year old man originally from Ecuador. He lives in Westbrook with his wife (student G.S. listed below). He has been in the U.S. for less than a year and he is a very basic beginner with almost no English. He worked as a mailman in his country and currently works as a painter. He would be available for tutoring on Wednesday or Thursdays at the Westbrook Library. Added 1/9/19

G.S. A woman in her mid 50's originally from Ecuador. She lives in Westbrook with her husband (student C.C.. listed above). She has been in the U.S. for less than a year and she is a very basic beginner with almost no English. She works as a housekeeper and would be available for tutoring in the evenings at the Westbrook Library. Added 1/9/19

J.R. A young man in his early 20's originally from Ecuador who now lives in Westbrook. He has been in the U.S. for 4 years and has some conversational English skills but seems to understand more than he can speak. He works full time doing construction at company he owns with his brother. He is very personable and enthusiastic about tutoring and would be available for tutoring in the evenings at the Westbrook Library or another agreed upon location. Added 1/9/19

J.A. A man in his mid 30's from Ecuador who lives in Westbrook. He has been in the U.S. for 4 years and has two jobs. He has some Basic English conversational skills and would like to improve his English to obtain better employment and to communicate better. He is very friendly and enthusiastic to work with a tutor. He would be available for tutoring in Clinton or Westbrook at the library on Wed or Thurs after 5 or 6pm. Added 1/9/19

A.D. A woman in her mid 30's originally from Mexico who now lives in Westbrook. She has been in the U.S. for 4 years and has some beginner English skills. She would like to improve her English to better communicate in English with her children aged 2, 4, and 13. She is a friendly woman who does drive and would be available for tutoring during the evenings at 6pm at the Westbrook Library. Added 8/8/18

F.C. A man in his mid 30's originally from Ecuador. He has been in the U.S. for 14 years and lives in Clinton with his family. His wife and son are both LVVS students tutored at the Hull Library. He had some high school in Ecuador and is able to comprehend and answer Basic English questions. He would like to improve his English to help his children with school work and for his work. He works full time and would be available for tutoring in the evenings after 6pm at the Hull Library in Clinton. Added 2/7/18

H.T. A man in his mid 50's originally from Ecuador who now lives in Old Saybrook. He has been in the U.S. for 24 years and he speaks conversational English but would like to improve for his English skills for work. He currently works full time and would be available for tutoring on Mondays and Fridays after 5pm at the Acton Library. Added 4/19/18

B.T. A woman in her mid 20's originally from Ecuador. She has been in the U.S. for 4 years and lives in Clinton with her husband and two children. She has her own house cleaning business and would like to improve her English to communicate better with her customers. She is a Basic Beginner and has some basic vocabulary but has difficulty in constructing complete sentences. She also has Basic Beginner English reading skills. She is available for meeting on Mondays or Tuesdays in the evenings at the Hull Library in Clinton. Added 6/12/18

A.P. A 50 year old woman originally from Ecuador. She has been in the U.S. for 2 years and lives in Old Saybrook with her husband and young son. She speaks very little English but is very eager to learn. She would be available for tutoring on Tuesday mornings, or Sundays anytime at the Acton Library. Added 10/18/18

H.G. A 40 year old woman originally from Guatemala. She currently lives in Westbrook and has been in the U.S. for 1 year. She has a high school education and some college. She can answer basic questions but needs to improve her comprehension and grammar. She is very bright, friendly and eager to learn. She works part time now and would like to be tutored on Saturdays at the Westbrook Library. Added 11/14/18

A.A. A man in his mid 20's originally from Ecuador. He has been in the U.S. for 4 years and lives in Clinton with his wife (B.T. listed above) and their two children. He works full time in construction and has some opportunity to speak English but most of his co-workers speak Spanish. His English skills are at a Basic Beginner level as are his English reading skills. He is eager to work with a tutor and would like to be able to help his children with their school work and communicate with their teachers. He would be available for tutoring on Mondays or Tuesdays in the evening at the Hull Library in Clinton. Added 6/12/18

J.C. A woman in her late 40's originally from Ecuador who lives in Deep River. She has been in the U.S. for over 10 years. She had an LVVS tutor for a long time who helped her achieve her citizenship. She would like to continue improving her English skills to improve her work prospects. She is a very bright and friendly woman who has a degree from University in Ecuador and is a dedicated student. She would be available for tutoring at the Deep River Library any time after 4:30 during the week. Added 9/12/18

V.M. A woman in her early 30's originally from Ecuador. She has been in the U.S. for 2 years and lives in Westbrook. She works full time and has a school age son. She speaks almost no English and would like to be able to communicate with her co-workers. She would be available in the evenings or the weekends at the Westbrook Library. 10/17/18

P.N. A woman in her mid 30's originally from Ecuador who has been in the U.S. for 12 years. She currently lives in Clinton and works full time. She comprehends well and speaks fairly good Basic English. She would like to improve her English to help her son with school and improve her work communication skills. She would be available for tutoring on Saturday or Sundays any time after 12pm. Added 10/18/18

L.M. A woman in her early 40's from Ecuador who lives in Clinton with her husband. She has been in the U.S. for 11 years and comprehends English well. Her speaking skills are not as good as her comprehension. She is very motivated to learn and would like to improve her reading and writing skills as well as speaking. She is very friendly and works full time. She would be available for tutoring at the Hull Library in the afternoons on Saturdays. Added 10/18/18

M.O. A woman in her early 30's originally from Ecuador. She lives in Westbrook with her husband and 3 children. She has been in the U.S. for 3 years and she has some basic comprehension and can answer questions fairly well. She is very eager to improve her English and would be available for tutoring on Tuesday and Thursdays after 5pm at the Westbrook Library. Added 11/14/18