

STUDENTS WAITING April 9, 2019 10 potential students

E.A. A young man in his mid 30's from Honduras. He lives in Westbrook and has been in the U.S. for 12 years. He works in the kitchen of a restaurant and needs to improve his English to communicate better with his co-workers. His English is very limited but seems to understand more than he can speak. He has worked with a tutor previously and would like to continue. He would be available after 4pm at the Westbrook Library. He does drive so he would be able to possibly meet at another location as well. Added 3/18/19

S.E. A man in his mid 30's who is a native born American who lives in Westbrook. He has autism and goes to a day program at Vista in Madison. Since he is developmentally delayed his comprehension lags behind his word decoding skills. He has difficulty writing and shows no interest in working on that. He is a friendly young man and has many interests. He is very eager to start working with a tutor and would be available for tutoring at in Madison at his day program Mon-Fri from 3pm-4:30pm. Added 2/19/19.

J.A. A man in his mid 30's from Ecuador who lives in Westbrook. He has been in the U.S. for 4 years and has two jobs. He has some Basic English conversational skills and would like to improve his English to obtain better employment and to communicate better. He is very friendly and enthusiastic to work with a tutor. He would be available for tutoring in Clinton or Westbrook at the library on Wed or Thurs after 5 or 6pm. Added 1/9/19

F.C. A man in his mid 30's originally from Ecuador. He has been in the U.S. for 14 years and lives Clinton with his family. His wife and son are both LVVS students tutored at the Hull Library. He had some high school in Ecuador and is able to comprehend and answer Basic English questions. He would like to improve his English to help his children with school work and for his work. He works full time and would be available for tutoring in the evenings after 6pm at the Hull Library in Clinton. Added 2/7/18

H.G. A 40 year old women originally from Guatemala. She currently lives in Westbrook and has been in the U.S. for 1 year. She has a high school education and some college. She can answer basic questions but needs to improve her comprehension and grammar. She is very bright, friendly and eager to learn. She works part time now and would like to be tutored on Saturdays at the Westbrook Library. Added 11/14/18

A.A. A man in his mid 20's originally from Ecuador. He has been in the U.S. for 4 years and lives in Clinton with his wife and their two children. He works full time in construction and has some opportunity to speak English but most of his co-workers speak Spanish. His English skills are at a Basic Beginner level as are his English reading skills. He is eager to work with a tutor and would like to be able to help his children with their school work and communicate with their teachers. He would be available for tutoring on Mondays or Tuesdays in the evening at the Hull Library in Clinton. Added 6/12/18

P.N. A woman in her mid 30's originally from Ecuador who has been in the U.S. for 12 years. She currently lives in Clinton and works full time. She comprehends well and speaks fairly good Basic English. She would like to improve her English to help her son with school and improve her work communication skills. She would be available for tutoring on Saturday or Sundays any time after 12pm. Added 10/18/18

L.M. A woman in her early 40's from Ecuador who lives in Clinton with her husband. She has been in the U.S. for 11 years and comprehends English well. Her speaking skills are not as good as her comprehension. She is very motivated to learn and would like to improve her reading and writing skills as well as speaking. She is very friendly and works full time. She would be available for tutoring at the Hull Library in the afternoons on Saturdays. Added 10/18/18

C.C. A 60 year old man originally from Ecuador who has been in the U.S. for 1 and a half years and lives in Westbrook. He is a Basic Beginner with almost no English speaking skills. He works as a painter and is available for tutoring in the evenings at the Westbrook Library. Added 4/9/19

L.Y. A young woman in her early 30's originally from Ecuador who has been in the U.S. for 2 years. She speaks very little English other than answering a few basic questions. She currently works as a housekeeper and would be available in the mornings or afternoons at the Westbrook Library or the Hull Library. Added 4/9/19