

STUDENTS WAITING May 13, 2020 15 potential students

L.P. A woman in her mid 30's originally from Brazil who now lives in Westbrook. She has been in the U.S. for about a year and a half. She can answer conversational English questions and is very bright. She attended college in Brazil where she worked in accounting. She would like to improve her English for work and to get a better job. She would be available for tutoring after 2pm at the Westbrook Library.

N.C.M. A woman in her mid 30's originally from Ecuador who now lives in Clinton. She has been in the U.S. for 4 years and works part time. She is married with two children and another on the way due in February. Her English skills are very minimal but she is eager to improve for her job and also to help with her children's schoolwork and talk to their doctors. She would be available for tutoring Monday, Tuesday or Thursday mornings at the Hull Library in Clinton.

A.S. A woman in her early 60's originally from Ecuador. She has been in the U.S. for a little over a month and lives with her daughter in Clinton. She lived and worked on a farm in her native Ecuador where she finished high school. She would like to be able to gain employment eventually once she has some English skills. She is flexible for tutoring at the Hull or Acton Library.

K.G. A woman in her late 30's who lives in Westbrook and is a native born American. She is a Basic Reading student who has mild intellectual and developmental disabilities. She would like to improve her reading skills which are at a very low/preschool level. She is usually free after 6pm on Wednesdays and other times would need to be scheduled weekly per her work schedule since it changes weekly.

F.M. A man in his early 50's originally from Ecuador who now lives in Westbrook. He has been in the U.S. for 3 years and works full time at a local restaurant. He speaks almost no English and was a teacher in his home country. He is very friendly and eager to learn. He would be available for tutoring anytime on Thursdays at the Westbrook Library or another agreed upon location.

S.L. A woman in her mid 40's originally from Ecuador who now lives Westbrook with her husband who is student F.M. listed above. She has been in the U.S. for 3 years and can answer some very Basic English questions. She works part time at a local hotel and would like to be able to communicate better with her employers and hotel guests. She would be available for tutoring on Thursdays until 3pm and any time after 5pm. She may have flexibility in her schedule for other days but she only has 2 days' notice of her schedule so flexibility would be necessary.

A.M. A woman in her mid 30's who is a native born American. She is a Basic Reading student who has some learning disabilities and reads at a low level. She is very motivated to learn and lives in a group home in Chester. She is a pleasant woman who enjoys animals and Dr. Seuss. She would be available for tutoring at the Brian House after 4:30 in the afternoons.

S.C.I. A woman in her mid 40's who is originally from Honduras and has been in the U.S. for 22 years. She has had a tutor in the past and would like to resume tutoring. She has some basic conversational skills and would like to improve her English for work and currently lives in Deep River with her husband and family. She is available for tutoring in the afternoons.

M.M.M. A woman in her early 30's originally from Mexico who had been in the U.S. since she was 13. She has good conversational skills and fairly good English comprehension. She would like to improve her English for work and to communicate better with the teachers at her children's school. She lives in Clinton and would be available for tutoring at the Hull Library in the mornings on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday.

F.R. A man in his late 60's originally from Guatemala who has been in the U.S. for 2 years. He speaks fairly good English and comprehends very well. He worked as an accountant and factory manager in Guatemala and is currently retired. He would like to improve his English speaking skills to better communicate and would be available for tutoring in the mornings or afternoons at the Hull Library.

R.R. A woman in her mid 60's originally from Guatemala married to F.R. listed above. She works full time as an accountant and would like to improve her English skills which are quite good. She is a very talkative woman who lives with her husband, son, his native born American wife and their infant grandson in Clinton. She would be available for tutoring on Tuesday or Thursdays in the morning or afternoon at the Hull Library.

R.C. A man in his late 30's originally from Ecuador who lives in Old Saybrook. He has been in the U.S. for 11 years and works as a line cook in Old Saybrook. He can answer Basic English questions and has fairly good comprehension. He would like to improve his English to get a better job and would be available for tutoring on Wednesday or Thursday after 4pm at the Hull Library in Clinton.

J.U. A young woman in her mid 20's originally from Ecuador who lives in Old Saybrook. She has been in the U.S. for about a year and works as a housekeeper. She speaks little English and lives with R.C. listed above. She would be available for tutoring on Thursday afternoons at the Hull Library in Clinton.

A.B. A woman in her early 30's originally from Guatemala. She has been in the U.S. for 2 years and lives in Clinton. She has Basic English vocabulary and comprehension skills and would like to improve her speaking skills while also learning to read and write in English. She is highly motivated and has attended the ERACE program but would like one on one tutoring. She is very flexible on meeting and would be available to meet at the Hull Library in Clinton.

G.M. A woman in her late 40's originally from Brazil. She has been in the U.S. for over 20 years and currently lives in Westbrook. She is able to communicate in English but needs help with his sentence structure and vocabulary. She had a tutor many years ago and would like to resume working with a tutor. She is highly motivated to learn and would be a good student. She is available for tutoring any time after 5pm at the Westbrook Library.