

LVVS Now Offers Access to News For You Online!

About News for You and Online Instructions

The News for You website <https://www.newsforyouonline.com/> offers easy-to-read news stories that can help your ESL student learn to read, write, speak, and understand English. Seven new stories are posted each Wednesday, along with audio, exercises, vocabulary, a crossword puzzle, a word search, and a poll. You can listen to each story in full or sentence-by-sentence.

The articles on News for You are based on reports from The Associated Press and The Washington Post news services. All content is thoroughly reviewed by adult education professionals and editors to ensure accuracy, low-level readability, and appropriateness.

You and your student can read News for You Online on any device that's connected to the internet: a desktop or laptop computer, smartphone, or tablet. It's available 24/7. Just go to the website with your usual web browser and enter the LVVS password. News for You Online works well in all major browsers, such as Firefox, Chrome, Safari, and Internet Explorer. LVVS has obtained a subscription for one year.

If you are interested in accessing - this online newsletter, you can find the link on our LVVS website under the tutor portal [<https://lvvs.org/tutor-portal/>]. Please contact the LVVS office for the password to use to sign in on the site (top of webpage).