

STUDENT WAITING LIST

July 12, 2022

J.F. A man in his mid-60's born in the U.S. who currently lives in Chester. He is a Basic Reading student who would like to improve his reading skills and has minimal writing skills. He was raised in an Italian speaking family with his immigrant parents. He is very friendly and open to learning and would be available for tutoring at the Chester Library in Chester or another agreed upon location. He is available for tutoring on Tuesday mornings.

C.M. A man in his mid 30's originally from Ecuador who now lives in Clinton. He has been in the U.S. for almost 5 years and speaks very good conversational English and is able to have telephone conversations in English. He is currently enrolled in the Adult Ed ESL classes at Morgan High School in Clinton and works full time as a prep cook. He is very friendly, talkative and eager to improve his English writing and speaking skills. He would like to work with a tutor at Hull Library in the evenings or would be willing to go to another library for tutoring in the evenings on Tuesdays or Thursdays after 6:30pm.

C.R. A young woman in her mid-20's originally from Ecuador and now lives in Clinton with her husband (student G.Q. listed below). She has been in the U.S. for only a couple of weeks. She speaks, reads and writes English very well and would like to become more proficient to further her job opportunities. She is very friendly and eager to learn. She has an engineering degree from a university in Ecuador. She would be available for tutoring in the evenings online.

G.Q. A young man in his mid-20's originally from Ecuador and now lives in Clinton with his wife (student C.R. listed above). He has been in the U.S. for only a couple of weeks. He speaks, reads and writes English good and would like to become more proficient to further his job opportunities. He is very friendly and eager to learn. He also has an engineering degree from a university in Ecuador. He would be available for in the evenings online.

S.V. A woman in her early 40's originally from Ecuador who now lives in Clinton. She has been in the U.S. for about 2 months and she speaks no English. She has a 6th grade education and would like to learn English to for her work. She works full time as a housekeeper and would like to meet in the evenings at the Hull Library in Clinton.

M.S. A woman in her early 50's originally from Ecuador. She has been in the U.S. for only a few days and she currently lives in Westbrook with her daughter who is her contact person. She speaks no English but is very motivated to learn as she would like to be independent. She would be available for tutoring at the Westbrook Library after 5pm during the week or on the weekends.

B.A. A woman in her early 30's originally from Ecuador who now lives in Clinton with husband and her two school age children. She has been in the U.S. for about 6 years and speaks basic conversational English. She would like to become more proficient in her speaking abilities to pursue job opportunities in the healthcare field. She is a very earnest and motivated young woman who is also taking ESL classes with SAE and will pursue again in the fall. She would be available for tutoring Tuesday mornings or Friday afternoons at the Hull Library in Clinton.