

STUDENT WAITING LIST

January 23, 2023

D.N. A man in his late 40's originally from the Democratic Republic of Congo. He has been in the U.S. for about 3 years and currently lives in Madison. He works full time and lives with his children and wife (N.N. student below). He can speak Basic English, his primary languages are French and Lingala, an African dialect. He is very friendly and eager to learn. He is available to be tutored in the evenings, Sunday and Wednesday online.

N.N. A woman in her mid 30's originally from the Democratic Republic of Congo. She has been in the U.S. for about 3 years and currently lives in Madison. She works part time and lives with his children and husband (D.N. student above). She can speak very little English, her primary languages are French and Lingala, an African dialect. She is available to be tutored in the evenings, Sunday and Wednesday online only.

S.V. A woman in her early 40's originally from Ecuador who now lives in Clinton. She has been in the U.S. for about 2 months and she speaks no English. She has a 6th grade education and would like to learn English to for her work. She works full time as a housekeeper and would like to meet in the evenings at the Hull Library in Clinton.

M.P. A woman in her late 20's from Ecuador. She has been in the U.S. for about a month and lives in Westbrook with her husband (P.A. listed above) and her young son. She speaks no English and is a bit shy. She is very friendly and would be able to meet at the Westbrook Library in the evenings and on the weekends.

D.C. A 30 year old young woman originally from Ecuador who is living in Westbrook. She works at a restaurant in New London part time. She has been in the U.S. for about 2 months and speaks almost no English. She is eager to learn and tries hard to communicate using English. She finished high school and university in Ecuador. She is available for tutoring on Wednesdays at the Westbrook Library.

G.B. A woman in her late 40's originally from Ecuador who has been in the U.S. for over 5 years. She currently lives in Ivoryton and works as a housekeeper. She is determined to work at improving her English which is very basic. She is available for tutoring after 5pm during the work week and she is available on weekends at the Essex or Ivoryton Library.

K.R. A woman in her early 20's originally from Ecuador who lives in Westbrook. She has been in the U.S. for about 3 and a half years. She speaks basic conversational English very well but would like to improve her sentence structure and vocabulary to help with her communicating with her clients. She works full time as a nail technician and would be available for tutoring on Sunday mornings or anytime on Tuesdays at the Westbrook Library. She would also be willing to be tutored online but prefers in person.

A.R. A woman in her early 30's originally from Ecuador who now lives in Old Saybrook. She has been in the U.S. for 4 years. She has a high school education and speaks conversational English well but needs to improve her vocabulary and grammar for her job. She works full time at a local manufacturing facility and would be available for tutoring on Saturday mornings at the Acton Library or another agreed upon location. She would also be willing to be tutored online if preferred.

A.P. A woman in her mid 40's originally from Ecuador. She currently lives in Westbrook with her family. She has worked with a tutor in the past and is very motivated to continue. She is very bright and speaks basic conversational English. She would be available for tutoring on Saturday, Sunday or Mondays in the mornings at the Westbrook Library or another agreed upon location.