

STUDENT WAITING LIST

February 7, 2024

A.N. A young woman in her mid-20's originally from Ecuador who now lives in Clinton. She has been in the U.S. for about 1 year and speaks very little English. She works part time as a housekeeper and part time as a cook at a local market in Guilford. She is friendly and soft spoken, and eager to learn English. She indicated she went to university in Ecuador where she studied chemistry. She would be available for tutoring on Tues, Wed, or Thurs after 4pm at the Hull Library in Clinton or via Zoom.

J.P. A man in his mid-40's originally from Ecuador who now lives in Westbrook. He has been in the U.S. for about 2 years. He speaks very little English but is eager to learn. He finished high school in Ecuador where he worked in business before coming to the U.S. He is married to another LVVS student so he is familiar with the tutoring process. He is available for tutoring on Mondays and/or Thursdays at 10AM at the Westbrook Library.

C.C. A man in his mid-30's originally from Ecuador now living in Clinton. He has been in the U.S. for about one year and his English is very limited. He is very motivated to learn English to help him at work and communicate with others when he shops, etc. He currently works at a local restaurant as a cook and dishwasher. He would be available for tutoring on Tuesdays at the Hull Library in Clinton at 1pm.

S.P. A woman in her mid-20's originally from Ecuador now living in Westbrook. She has been in the U.S. for two years and speaks very little English. She finished high school in Ecuador where she worked in child care. She currently works as a housekeeper and would like to be able to communicate better with her clients. She is available for tutoring in the evenings at the Westbrook Library.

K.J. A woman in her early 20's originally from Ecuador now living in Old Saybrook. She has been in the U.S. for about 2 months and finished high school in Ecuador. She is married to student B.S. listed below. She speaks almost no English and is eager to learn since she is seeking work. She would be available for tutoring on Monday afternoons for tutoring at the Acton Library.

V.M. A woman in her mid 30's originally from Ecuador now living in Clinton. She has been in the U.S. for about 7 years and finished high school in Ecuador. Her English comprehension is fairly good but she is hesitant about speaking and needs to encouragement. She is very motivated to learn and can meet at the Hull Library any day Monday through Friday after 6pm.

B.S. A man in his mid-20's originally from Ecuador now living in Old Saybrook. He has been in the U.S. for about 2 months and finished high school in Ecuador. He is married to student K.J. listed above. He speaks almost no English and is eager to learn since he is seeking work. He would be available for tutoring on Monday afternoons for tutoring at the Acton Library.

E.S. A man in his late 30's originally from Ecuador now living in Old Saybrook. He has been in the U.S. for about 2 years and went to school for 6 years in Ecuador. He can answer basic English questions and would be available for tutoring in the evenings on Tuesdays at the Acton Library in Old Saybrook.

E.J. A woman in her late 20's originally from Ecuador now living in Old Saybrook. She has been in the U.S. for about 4 months and finished high school in Ecuador. She is a basic beginner with very little English skills but is friendly and eager to learn. She currently works part time and would be available for tutoring at the Acton Library in Old Saybrook. Her employer is a former LVVS student and realizes how important it is to learn English so her tutoring hours can be flexible. She is also available to meet online if preferred.

K.B. A woman in her early 20's originally from Ecuador now living in Ivoryton. She has been in the U.S. for about 2 years and finished high school in Ecuador. She can read, write and answer conversational questions in English. She is eager to improve her English skills in order to be more effective at work and to communicate in general. She can meet in the evenings at the Ivoryton or Essex Library.

B.S. A man in is late 20's originally from Honduras now living in Westbrook. He has been in the U.S. for about 1.5 years and finished high school in Honduras. His reading, writing and English speaking skills are very limited. He is married with a son who attends elementary school in Westbrook and currently works at two part time jobs. He is a friendly and soft spoken young man who would be available for tutoring at the Westbrook Library on a date and time decided by him and his tutor.

B.A. A young man in his early 20's originally from Ecuador now living in Clinton. He has been in the U.S for 3 years and finished elementary school in Ecuador. He is currently not working but is seeking employment. He is a shy young man and self-conscious about speaking but understands more than he initially appeared to. He is available for tutoring at the Hull Library in Clinton or the Westbrook Library. His aunt will be driving him for tutoring and both of their schedules are flexible for setting up meeting times.