

STUDENT WAITING LIST

May 7, 2024

M.P. A woman in her late 20's from Ecuador. She has been in the U.S. for about almost 2 years and lives in Westbrook with her husband and young son. She speaks almost no English and is a bit shy. She is very friendly and eager to work with a tutor. She would be available for tutoring at 5:30 on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at the Westbrook Library.

W.L. A young man in his early 20's originally from Ecuador. He has been in the U.S. for about 3 years and lives in Westbrook. He finished high school and 2 years of university in Ecuador. He is an intelligent young man who would be a good student and learn quickly. He would be available for tutoring in the mornings at the Westbrook Library.

M.G. A young man from Haiti in his mid-20's. He has been in the U.S. for a little less than a year and currently lives in Deep River. He works part time as a kitchen worker and can speak some very basic conversational English. He would like to improve his job prospects and would be available for tutoring on the weekends at the Deep River Library.

B.A. A woman in her young 30's who has been in the U.S. for about 8 years and now lives in Clinton. She speaks conversational English and has previously been tutored by LVVS tutor. She is an earnest and sweet woman who would be available for tutoring on Monday mornings and Friday afternoon after 1pm.

S.P. A woman in her mid-20's originally from Ecuador now living in Westbrook. She has been in the U.S. for two years and speaks very little English. She finished high school in Ecuador where she worked in child care. She currently works as a housekeeper and would like to be able to communicate better with her clients. She is available for tutoring in the evenings at the Westbrook Library.

E.H. A man in his mid 30's originally from Ecuador who has been in the U.S. for about 3 years and currently lives in Clinton. He has some basic English skills and has worked with an LVVS tutor previously who moved out of the area. He is very friendly, outgoing and likes to read self-help books. He finished University in Ecuador and would like to pursue a bartending course here. He would be available for tutoring on Sunday and Monday mornings at the Hull Library in Clinton.

E.S. A man in his late 30's originally from Ecuador now living in Old Saybrook. He has been in the U.S. for about 2 years and went to school for 6 years in Ecuador. He can answer basic English questions and would be available for tutoring in the evenings on Tuesdays at the Acton Library in Old Saybrook.

B.S. A man in his late 20's originally from Honduras now living in Westbrook. He has been in the U.S. for about 1.5 years and finished high school in Honduras. His reading, writing and English speaking skills are very limited. He is married with a son who attends elementary school in Westbrook and currently works at two part time jobs. He is a friendly and soft spoken young man who would be available for tutoring at the Westbrook Library on a date and time decided by him and his tutor.

R.I. A woman in her mid-50's originally from Ecuador living in Clinton. She has been in the U.S. for 21 years and speaks a little conversational English. She would like to improve her English to communicate better for her job. She completed a vocational program in Ecuador to make clothes. She currently works in housekeeping and would be available for tutoring at the Hull Library on Saturdays in late morning or afternoons.

D.M. A young man in his early 20's originally from Ecuador and lives in Westbrook. He has been in the U.S. for 2 ½ years, shortly after graduating from high school in Ecuador. He speaks some basic conversational English and is eager to learn so he can communicate better with his customers for work. He is able to read simple English and sounds out words he doesn't know. He would be available for tutoring every day but Sundays from 6-8pm in the evenings at the Westbrook Library.